

No Tomorrow

Lins/Eldridge

I wait upon a single word
I float somehow between two worlds
Despite the hope of who we are
Is no tomorrow to come?

You say that you're not sure of us
You say you have to let me know
And now I do this foolish dance
Of holding on and letting go

Just not one more day of mixed emotions
When an hour feels more like forever
My heart waits in silence, in silence
'Til you've met your conclusion

The time to keep the peace is gone
I need to hear your voice be strong
To yes or no do we belong
Is no tomorrow to come?

Please not one more day of mixed emotions
When an hour feels more like forever
My heart waits in silence, in silence
'Til you've met your conclusion

The time to keep the peace is gone
I need to hear your voice be strong
To yes or no do we belong
Is no tomorrow to come?
Is no tomorrow to come?
Hold me like there is no tomorrow
