

Peter Eldridge | vocalist, composer, pianist

www.petereldridge.com

. Press Quotes .

"I am listening to Peter Eldridge's new record, 'Disappearing Day'. I am grinning like a fool as each new sonic joy unfolds. The instrumentation is precise, landscapes neatly drawn, each song carefully and perfectly embraced and enhanced. There's just no category for what Peter does. It's simply exquisite, timeless work."

- Jonatha Brooke

"Peter Eldridge's "Disappearing Day" is refreshing, authentic music delivered straight from the soul. The rich harmonies and gorgeous production highlight his smooth, effortless vocals, masterful poetry, and gorgeous piano accompaniments. I'm inspired that this kind of music is still being created."

- Becca Stevens

"Disappearing Day—Eldridge's fifth album to date—is an out-and-out masterpiece. It delivers a dozen of the most spellbinding tracks you're likely to encounter in 2016. His is the true voice of understanding, speaking on its own terms while also capturing and expressing the emotions that we all feel. If ever there was a singular artist capable of showing us the singularity in ourselves, it's Peter Eldridge."

- All About Jazz

"Peter Eldridge can sing blues with great conviction, swing with great ease, caress a ballad with the best, and on his newest 'Disappearing Day', seems to have no fear taking chances with his music."

- Step Tempest

"His fifth studio album, Disappearing Day, with its strength in songwriting and almost tongue-in-cheek lyricism, moves his music from its deserved pedestal in jazz further into genre-blending uncharted territory."

- FoundSound