

Surrender

Peter Eldridge

Never mind the dishes piled high in the sink
Never mind the weather or your work day
You've been running all day long
Trying to be everything to everybody,
Everything to everybody
Let's be still and see what a little silence can bring
Go on and lose yourself for just awhile
Right now no one is aiming to impress
Right now more is less
No this is not a test

Oh the world, the world is hard enough
And you can't always be made of the tougher stuff
So just surrender
Surrender
Let worries all fall from your face
Knowing this is the safest place to surrender
Come on surrender
It's only us giving in to trust

All I ask is for your every secret all rolled up into one
That every move that we make means just a little more
Right now no one is going anywhere
Needing to be anything to anybody
No, not a thing to nobody

Oh the world is hard enough
And you can't always be made of the tougher stuff

CHORUS

And come tomorrow it's back to the everyday
And come tomorrow it's business as usual
There will be lots of time for the daily grind
But now hold on tight, look me in the eye and don't let go

Give me something we can wrap our hearts around
Oh wrap our hearts around
When there's nothing right and nothing wrong
Nothing 'bout weak or strong and nothing left to prove
Surrender
Oh, surrender
It's only us giving in to trust . . .

Never mind the dishes piled high in the sink
Never mind the weather or your workday.
You've been running all day long
Trying to be everything to ever
